

Pastor Darryl Bentley

(Right click on the picture to save separately from this document)

Pastor Darryl Bentley hails from North Carolina and currently serves as the Associate Ministerial Director for the Carolina Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. He also pastored in the Michigan Conference for over 14 years and served as a Chaplain Assistant (56M, E4) for the United States Army for 2.5 years. He is passionate about serving other pastors and sharing the Word of God wherever the Lord opens those doors. Whether that service is local or if it is leading mission trips to foreign fields, he loves ministry. Pr. Bentley received a B.A. in Theology from Southern Adventist University, a Master's in Pastoral Ministry from the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary at Andrews University, and he is currently pursuing a Doctor of Ministry in Ministry Leadership & Renewal from Regent University. Apart from serving the Lord and His people, Pr. Bentley loves spending time with his wife, Ginger, traveling, flying general aviation aircraft, and playing music on the guitar or cello.