

GENEROUS LIVING

ALL OF ME
IN RESPONSE TO ALL OF HIM

MAY

Little did I know as a preteen many decades ago that the home-study Bible course I was so excited to be studying was from the Seventh-day Adventists.

I knew it came from the Voice of Prophecy, but being a child, I didn't think it necessary to question things any further. My parents were involved in a Missionary Baptist church at the time, and I grew up in that church.

Years later, when I was about 60 years old, I was visiting a friend in Raleigh, NC, when I noticed a flyer on the counter advertising a prophecy seminar coming up in October. It really got my attention, and I immediately made the decision to attend; the date was fixed in my mind.

As Satan would have it, the first night I attended was one week into the series. When I arrived at the location shown on the flyer, I discovered I was at a Seventh-day Adventist church, a denomination I had never heard of. Satan tried to convince me I was at an occult gathering, but since my curiosity was aroused, I thought I would check it out anyway.

While I listened to the speaker, the Holy Spirit began convincing me that what I was hearing really was the truth of God's Word. Every evening the truth was revealed to me in such a beautiful and enlightening manner. The Holy Spirit opened my eyes and heart to understand the truth and made very clear the answers to many questions I had struggled with over the years. I was overwhelmed by God's love and joyfully praised Him.

Today I am a charter member of the Little Creek SDA Fellowship Church in Clayton, NC, a congregation planted by the church in which I first heard and accepted the undiluted truth of God's Holy Word. We celebrated our 10th year at Little Creek on September 24, 2016.

One thing I didn't mention earlier is that the zip code in which I saw the prophecy seminar brochure was not part of the bulk mailing. How did it get there? Another of God's miracles!

God is still calling His children out of Babylon, and I praise the Lord every day for bringing me into His true Church.
